

Hooters Air Keeps Growing, expands Service to St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport (PIE) from Allentown, Pennsylvania

Travelers' appetite for Hooters Air has apparently not been satisfied. The restaurant themed carrier has added it's newest destination, St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport to/from Lehigh Valley Airport in Allentown, PA.

"We are pleased that Hooters Air will spread it's wings to St. Petersburg-Clearwater International, the birthplace of Hooters," says Mark Peterson, President of Hooters Air.

Based in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Hooters Air initiated service to Atlanta in March 2003 and now serves Newark, Baltimore, Gary, Chicago/Rockford, Columbus and Nassau. Hooters Air has added service from Allentown, PA to St. Petersburg/Tampa and Ft. Lauderdale, FL. Hooters Air flights are operated on Boeing 737 and Boeing 757 aircraft. The aircraft are configured with dark blue leather seats, extra leg room, and will be staffed by a crew of two pilots, 3 flight attendants, along with Hooters Girls on every flight. The Hooters Girls are provided by Hooters of America and come from the Hooters Restaurants.

Hooters Air Flights will be offered most days between these cities with fares from $89. Reservations can be made for this new and expanding service at www.hootersair.com or by calling 1-888-FLY-HOOT (1-888-359-4668). Fares are one-way, subject to availability and subject to change. Fares do not include Passenger Facility Charges of up to $9 each way, September 11th Security Fees of up to $5 each way and Federal Segment tax of $3.20. A segment is defined as one take-off and one landing. Hooters Air Flights are Public Charters operated by Pace Airlines. See Tour Participant Agreement for full terms and conditions of travel.

Hooters of America, Inc. is the franchiser and operator of over 390 Hooters restaurants in 44 states and 11 foreign countries. The first Hooters opened in 1983 in Clearwater, Florida. Hooters is well known for its brand of food and fun, featuring a casual beach-themed atmosphere, a menu that features seafood, sandwiches and Hooters' signature chicken wings, and service provided by the All-American cheerleaders, the Hooters Girls.
