St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport (PIE) announces new air service from Sun Country Airlines

St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport (PIE) is pleased to announce new service by Sun Country Airlines with daily flights from Minneapolis/St. Paul International Airport (MSP) beginning Monday, November 20th, 2006.

"We're enthusiastic about beginning service to the bay area through the St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport," said Jim Olsen, COO of Sun Country. "The airport offers the opportunity for growth as well as convenience for our passengers."

Airport Director Noah Lagos states, "We are truly excited that Sun Country Airlines chose the St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport as their "Gateway to Tampa Bay". Sun Country offers premier service at low fare prices. Passengers will enjoy a unique customer friendly experience both at the airport and in the sky."

St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport will be joining Sun Country in a cooperative advertising effort to familiarize the traveling public with the airport as a convenient alternative to access attractions in and around the St. Petersburg/Tampa/Clearwater area.

Sun Country Airlines is a low cost, low fare carrier based in St. Paul, MN and was ranked #3 on the list of domestic airlines in Travel+Leisure's 2006 World's Best Awards. Sun Country, a privately held company, is following a conservative growth plan which will increase frequency to its popular destinations such as Phoenix, Dallas, Los Angeles, Orlando, Ft. Myers, Denver, Las Vegas and Washington, D.C. For a complete list of destinations and more information, please visit Sun Country's website at suncountry.com.
