

American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA)

St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport received $5,357,400 in grant funding from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act for the Terminal Rehabilitation and Renovation Project. The legislation, signed into law on February 17, 2009, provided $1.1 billion to the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) for airport related purposes.

Requirements include that both the sponsors and FAA report on the use of the funds. Reports will be filed as required in the airport's website www.fly2pie.com newsroom section – American Recovery & Reinvestment Act Grant.

Please see our Airport Sponsor Certification by clicking on the link below –

<http://www.fly2pie.com/media/files/ARRA2009SponsorCertification.pdf>

For more information on the American Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009, please visit www.recovery.gov

May 29, 2009

###