FLORIDA SUNSHINE NOW AVAILABLE NONSTOP!

ALLEGIANT AIR ANNOUNCES NEW NONSTOP AIR SERVICE TO ORLANDO AND TAMPA BAY:
GREENSBORO TO FLORIDA FOR JUST $49*

(Greensboro, N.C.)—Low-cost airline Allegiant Air, LLC today announces new, nonstop jet service to the fun and sun of Florida from Greensboro, N.C. beginning May 24, 2007. The low-fare carrier will celebrate the convenient new service to both Orlando and the Tampa Bay area, with introductory fares as low as $49* each way, when booked at www.allegiantair.com.

The self-proclaimed “Official Airline for Sunshine” will launch the new scheduled service from the Piedmont Triad Airport to Orlando Sanford International Airport and St. Petersburg/Clearwater International Airport in Tampa Bay.

“We are extremely pleased to extend the Allegiant brand of low-fare, nonstop jet service to the Greensboro community,” Maurice J. Gallagher, Allegiant Air president & CEO, said. “This is an exciting new addition for our airline and our customers as we launch the only low-cost, full-sized jet air service between Greensboro and Florida.”

"Orlando and Tampa/St. Pete are PTI's two most popular Florida destinations," says Henry Isaacson, airport authority chairman. "Having low fare, non-stop service to these markets will allow travelers to conveniently fly from PTI instead of driving to other airports."
As the only low-cost, full-sized jet air service between Greensboro and the Sunshine State, Allegiant will utilize MD-80 series, jet-aircraft with 150 seats on the Orlando route and 130 seats on the Tampa Bay route. The airline said its market research and input from local community leaders indicate that the Greensboro community will welcome the new nonstop flights and low fares to both Orlando and Tampa Bay as an alternative to connecting flights and long drives to other airports.

"We are happy to have Tampa/St. Petersburg and Orlando Sanford as two new non-stop destinations," says Ted Johnson, PTI executive director. "We believe the low fares offered by Allegiant will increase passenger traffic at PTI."

The new flights will operate three days weekly, with service Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday. For its Orlando service, flights will depart the Piedmont Triad Airport (PTI) at 4:00 p.m. arriving in Orlando Sanford International Airport at 5:35 p.m. Flights leaving Orlando will depart at 6:10 p.m. arriving in PTI at 7:45 p.m. For its Tampa Bay service, flights will depart the PTI at 8:20 p.m. arriving into St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport at 10:00 p.m. Flights leaving St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport will depart at 1:45 p.m. arriving in PTI at 3:25 p.m. (all flight times are local.)

Located midway between Orlando’s world-class attractions and the world’s most famous beach - Daytona Beach, Orlando Sanford International Airport offers visitors the “best of both worlds.” Both destinations are only minutes away, ideally situated for those hoping to take a break from the cold at the beach or to experience the fun of Disney World, Universal Studios, SeaWorld and the rest of the excitement Florida has to offer.

With an average 361 days of sunshine each year, the Tampa Bay/St. Petersburg/Clearwater area is considered the most popular vacation destination on Florida’s West Coast. The area was named among the top beaches in the United States and is one of a few destinations to have received the “Blue Wave Award” from the Clean Beaches Council. In addition to pristine beaches, visitors are within minutes of shopping, amazing golf courses and award-winning resort and dining experiences.
The Allegiant Vacations division of the company will allow customers to double their sunshine fun with complete vacation packages at some of both Orlando and Tampa Bay’s premier resorts.
